AREAS OF EXPERTISE

Personal Injury, Professional Negligence, Credit Hire, Property, Property Damage, Construction

Stephanie has a well established civil practice specializing in personal injury, credit hire, property damage, construction disputes, professional negligence and insurance. She has a particular interest in cases relating to tree root damage.

Stephanie is instructed by leading firms for both Claimants and Defendants. She is also instructed directly by insurers and will consider acting on a conditional fee arrangement basis.

In addition to drafting and advisory work she has considerable experience of appearing as an advocate in court. She also regularly attends mediations and round table meetings.

Credit Hire

Stephanie has represented both Claimants and Defendants in credit hire matters and has extensive experience of credit hire trials. She is fully familiar with the frequently argued issues of rate, impecuniosity, need and period. She has also argued enforceability issues.
