AREAS OF EXPERTISE

Personal Injury, Aviation, Group Litigation, International & Travel, Clinical Negligence, Abuse, Industrial Disease, Inquests, Credit Hire, Insurance

Corinne is an experienced junior who specialises in clinical negligence and personal injury claims, particularly those with an international or aviation element.

She has a growing practice in group litigation and is currently instructed as a second junior in multiple high-profile and complex mass tort group actions.

Aviation

Corinne has a developing practice and experience in aviation disputes. She recently appeared for the successful Respondents, led by Michael Rawlinson KC and Max Archer in the Supreme Court in Lipton v BA Cityflyer Ltd [2024] UKSC 24, an important case on the UK's legal order post-Brexit and Regulation 261.

Corinne has experience with carriage by air disputes, including those involving EU regulations and the Montreal Convention, as well as contractual claims brought against air carriers.

She is also comfortable dealing with high value catastrophic or fatal claims, either as a junior or part of a wider team and has recently been involved in several high-profile group actions.

She has been invited to speak on cross-border issues at international conferences, including those organised by the Pan-European Organisation of Personal Injury Lawyers.
