AREAS OF EXPERTISE

Costs & Litigation Funding, Fraud, Personal Injury, Credit Hire, Professional Negligence, Product Liability, Clinical Negligence, Insurance, International & Travel, Industrial Disease

Farhana accepts instructions in most areas of chambers' work with a particular interest in costs, fraud, personal injury, and credit hire. Farhana has a varied practice representing Claimants and Defendants across many areas of chambers' expertise.

Farhana has a growing reputation as a fraud specialist and is often instructed to advise insurers on high value claims involving exaggerated injury and loss to staged accidents.

Her unparalleled knowledge of fundamental dishonesty law makes her a go-to junior in this area. She is regularly instructed at early stages of litigation to shape the case and lead it to a successful resolution.

Farhana's expertise in dishonesty cases overlaps with her interest in costs law. Her knowledge in this area allows her to robustly pursue a finding of fundamental dishonesty at trial and seamlessly transition to costs law by disapplying QOCS, obtaining a costs order against the Claimant, and assessing those costs in a detailed assessment or oral review hearing following a provisional assessment.

Farhana's costs practice also crosses over with her specialism in credit hire cases as she is regularly instructed to advise on applications for non-party costs orders against a credit hire companies.

Personal Injury

Farhana regularly attends trials and applications in all aspects of personal injury law including:

- Road Traffic Accidents
- Workplace Accidents
- Local Authority Liability
- Occupiers' Liability
- Defective Premises
- Product Liability

Farhana also has extensive experience in:

- Advising at the early stages of claims on prospects and quantum
- Drafting robust pleadings
- Advising on interim applications

- Advising on settlement
- Conferencing with lay and expert witnesses
- Attending settlement meetings
