AREAS OF EXPERTISE

Personal Injury, Insurance, Employment & Discrimination, Sport, Clinical Negligence

Finn joined chambers in October 2025 following the successful completion of her pupillage under the supervision of Catherine Peck, Dan Tobin and Kweku Aggrey-Orleans.

He has experience in all core areas of Chambers' expertise with a particular interest in personal injury, clinical negligence, employment and indemnity.

Finn has a busy court practice with multiple hearings a week. Of particular note, he has been instructed in hearings involving allegations of fraud, indemnity issues and costs arguments.

He has a growing paperwork practice, having drafted pleadings in personal injury and clinical negligence disputes including misdiagnosis resulting in fatality.

Prior to pupillage, Finn worked as a chef under Tom Kerridge and travelled extensively before becoming a paralegal in the clinical negligence team at Stewarts Law LLP. In this latter role, Finn's work focused specifically on high value serious injury claims.

In his spare time, Finn can be found tending the wildflower meadow he has established or playing rugby.

Personal Injury

Finn is regularly instructed in personal injury claims dealing with liability, causation and quantum. Finn accepts instructions for both claimants and defendants.

He is an experienced courtroom advocate including in cases involving allegations of fundamental dishonesty.

He is frequently instructed in application hearings, stage 3 hearings and infant approval hearings.

Finn's paperwork practice includes having drafted a pleading in an employer liability dispute which involved the injury of a healthcare professional following an attack by a mental health patient.
