AREAS OF EXPERTISE

Personal Injury, Insurance, Employment & Discrimination, Sport, Clinical Negligence

Finn joined chambers in October 2025 following the successful completion of her pupillage under the supervision of Catherine Peck, Dan Tobin and Kweku Aggrey-Orleans.

He has experience in all core areas of Chambers' expertise with a particular interest in personal injury, clinical negligence, employment and indemnity.

Finn has a busy court practice with multiple hearings a week. Of particular note, he has been instructed in hearings involving allegations of fraud, indemnity issues and costs arguments.

He has a growing paperwork practice, having drafted pleadings in personal injury and clinical negligence disputes including misdiagnosis resulting in fatality.

Prior to pupillage, Finn worked as a chef under Tom Kerridge and travelled extensively before becoming a paralegal in the clinical negligence team at Stewarts Law LLP. In this latter role, Finn's work focused specifically on high value serious injury claims.

In his spare time, Finn can be found tending the wildflower meadow he has established or playing rugby.

Clinical Negligence

Finn gained a wealth of experience dealing with high value serious injury clinical negligence claims during his time working as a paralegal at Stewarts Law LLP in the clinical negligence team. The types of cases he dealt with included misdiagnoses of cancer, brain and spinal cord injuries and severe birth injuries.

Finn continued to work on clinical negligence cases during his pupillage and has drafted pleadings in a fatal misdiagnosis of bowel cancer claim with a reserve of £250,000.
