AREAS OF EXPERTISE

Personal Injury, Clinical Negligence, Employment & Discrimination, Insurance, International & Travel, Sport

Finn joined Chambers in October 2025 following the successful completion of his pupillage under the supervision of Catherine Peck, Dan Tobin and Kweku Aggrey-Orleans.

He has experience in all core areas of Chambers' expertise with a particular interest in personal injury, clinical negligence, employment and indemnity.

Finn has a busy court practice with multiple hearings a week. Of particular note, he has been instructed in hearings involving allegations of fraud, indemnity issues, mistaken identity and costs arguments.

He has an established paperwork practice, having advised and/or drafted pleadings in personal injury, clinical negligence, international & travel, employment and discrimination disputes.

Prior to pupillage, Finn worked as a chef under Tom Kerridge and travelled extensively before becoming a paralegal in the clinical negligence team at Stewarts Law LLP. In this latter role, Finn's work focused specifically on high value serious injury claims.

In his spare time, Finn can be found in the wildflower meadow he has established, digging ponds or playing rugby.

Clinical Negligence

Finn gained a wealth of experience dealing with high value serious injury clinical negligence claims during his time working as a paralegal at Stewarts Law LLP in the clinical negligence team. The types of cases he dealt with included misdiagnoses of cancer, brain and spinal cord injuries and severe birth injuries.

Finn has continued to work on clinical negligence cases in his practice. Attending court hearings, advising on liability and quantum and drafting pleadings. A recent case of note was that Finn drafted pleadings in a fatal misdiagnosis of bowel cancer claim with a reserve of £250,000.
