AREAS OF EXPERTISE

Personal Injury, Insurance, Employment & Discrimination, Sport, Clinical Negligence

Finn joined chambers in October 2025 following the successful completion of her pupillage under the supervision of Catherine Peck, Dan Tobin and Kweku Aggrey-Orleans.

He has experience in all core areas of Chambers' expertise with a particular interest in personal injury, clinical negligence, employment and indemnity.

Finn has a busy court practice with multiple hearings a week. Of particular note, he has been instructed in hearings involving allegations of fraud, indemnity issues and costs arguments.

He has a growing paperwork practice, having drafted pleadings in personal injury and clinical negligence disputes including misdiagnosis resulting in fatality.

Prior to pupillage, Finn worked as a chef under Tom Kerridge and travelled extensively before becoming a paralegal in the clinical negligence team at Stewarts Law LLP. In this latter role, Finn's work focused specifically on high value serious injury claims.

In his spare time, Finn can be found tending the wildflower meadow he has established or playing rugby.

Employment

Finn has a keen interest in all areas of employment law. During pupillage, he gained experience in a number of different employment disputes. This included cases of unfair dismissal, disability discrimination, health and safety dismissals and failure to make reasonable adjustments.

Finn is a Volunteer Employment Representative at the Free Representation Unit.
