AREAS OF EXPERTISE

Personal Injury, Sport, Insurance, International & Travel, Costs & Litigation Funding, Commercial, Inquests, Inquiries, Property, Credit Hire, Industrial Disease

Jake is frequently instructed in a wide range of complex cases. Jake has an established practice across all of Chambers' areas of expertise. He specialises in personal injury, insurance, international and travel law, property damage, costs, commercial disputes, and sport.

Before joining chambers, Jake completed his LLM at UCL in international commercial law. Jake has a wide array of experience having worked for several leading national law firms, working on complex personal injury, property damage, and consumer rights claims. Prior to joining chambers, he worked for the Infected Blood Inquiry.

Jake is currently instructed as a second junior to Steven Snowden KC and Dr Achas Burin on the Lampard Inquiry into mental health provision in Essex.

Outside of Chambers, Jake is a keen hockey player and enjoys running, cycling, golf, and climbing.

Industrial Disease

Jake has a growing practice in industrial disease. He has been instructed on cases involving asbestos exposure as well as claims involving military personnel who sustained non-freezing cold injuries during service.

He is currently led by John-Paul Swoboda in a fatal mesothelioma claim.
