Jake is frequently instructed in a wide range of complex cases. Jake has an established practice across all of Chambers' areas of expertise. He specialises in personal injury, insurance, international and travel law, property damage, costs, commercial disputes, and sport.

Before joining chambers, Jake completed his LLM at UCL in international commercial law. Jake has a wide array of experience having worked for several leading national law firms, working on complex personal injury, property damage, and consumer rights claims. Prior to joining chambers, he worked for the Infected Blood Inquiry.

Jake is currently instructed as a second junior to Steven Snowden KC and Dr Achas Burin on the Lampard Inquiry into mental health provision in Essex.

Outside of Chambers, Jake is a keen hockey player and enjoys running, cycling, golf, and climbing.

Sport

Jake has a wide array of previous academic and practical experience with sports and related legal issues. He graduated top in his class in his sport and the law module in which he wrote variously on issues such as anti-doping, CAS, the effectiveness of sport national governing bodies, and the legal ramifications of injuries caused in competitive sport.

Jake has written and produced talks on various key topics in sport including Financial Fair Play regulations in football (here), and challenging sports arbitration awards (here).

Jake also has experience in complex matters involving public law and regulations through his previous work on the Infected Blood Inquiry.

He is a keen sportsman himself having played most sports including, amongst others, rowing, running, hockey, rugby, football, golf, cycling and climbing. As a former climbing and activities instructor he also has practical experience of the interplay between coaching sports and health and safety procedures.
