Jake is frequently instructed in a wide range of complex cases. Jake has an established practice across all of Chambers' areas of expertise. He specialises in personal injury, insurance, international and travel law, property damage, costs, commercial disputes, and sport.

Before joining chambers, Jake completed his LLM at UCL in international commercial law. Jake has a wide array of experience having worked for several leading national law firms, working on complex personal injury, property damage, and consumer rights claims. Prior to joining chambers, he worked for the Infected Blood Inquiry.

Jake is currently instructed as a second junior to Steven Snowden KC and Dr Achas Burin on the Lampard Inquiry into mental health provision in Essex.

Outside of Chambers, Jake is a keen hockey player and enjoys running, cycling, golf, and climbing.

Insurance

Jake has experience of acting and advising in a wide variety of insurance matters. Jake is well versed in insurance disputes including motor indemnity issues as well as general disputes about policy wording and coverage.

Examples of his work includes:

- Multiple successful strike outs of cases involving motor indemnity and deficient pleadings relating to Article 75 of the MIB's Articles of Association.
- Advising on the incorporation of contractual terms in a complex contractual dispute involving the storage of high-value goods which were stolen.
- Advising on coverage disputes relating to property damage from flooding.
