AREAS OF EXPERTISE

Personal Injury, Industrial Disease, International & Travel, Abuse, Insurance, Military Claims, Group Litigation

James is a leading junior in cases involving serious injuries and fatal accidents, with expertise in international and group litigation. He acts in complex and cutting-edge litigation, often with a cross-border element.

Chambers UK and The Legal 500 describe him as "really excellent" and "a brilliant lawyer". "James has a Rolls Royce brain and eye for detail." "His tactics and strategy always result in favourable outcomes."

The legal directories rank him as a leading junior in Group Litigation, Personal Injury, Industrial Disease, International Personal Injury, and Motor Insurance Fraud.

James was junior counsel in the Military Deafness Litigation, one of The Lawyer's Top 20 Cases of 2025.

James leads 12KBW's Band 1-ranked International & Travel Team. He edits the key practitioner textbooks in his areas of practice: Occupational Illness Litigation (Sweet & Maxwell), Asbestos: Law & Litigation (Sweet & Maxwell), and Butterworths Personal Injury Litigation Service (Accidents Abroad) (LexisNexis UK).

Insurance

James acts for claimants and defendants in a wide range of pure insurance disputes, including travel insurance, private health insurance, and motor insurance. He is regularly instructed by motor insurers to advise on policy and coverage disputes. He cuts through the complex legal issues raised in these cases to deliver pragmatic advice meeting the commercial needs of his clients.

James has particular expertise in motor insurer status and policy construction. He advises in relation to the Road Traffic Act 1988, Article 75 of the MIB's Articles of Association, and the Uninsured Drivers Agreement and Untraced Drivers Agreement. He has extensive experience of coverage disputes relating to vehicle use. His solicitors in this area value his cross-over expertise in litigation relating to personal injuries and overseas travel.
