

Katherine Awadalla

Call: 1998
awadalla@12KBW.co.uk

AREAS OF EXPERTISE

Personal Injury, Clinical Negligence

Katherine practices in all areas of personal injury and clinical negligence work. She has a particular interest in psychiatric injury and occupational stress claims.

In 2013, Katherine and her family relocated to Toronto, Canada and she has maintained her practising certificate and worked remotely from Chambers and is available for written advisory work.

Through her recent public appointment to the Health Boards in Toronto, Katherine works as an adjudicator; conducting appeals and reviews from regulatory and registration decisions of the colleges of health professionals and veterinary surgeons.

Personal Injury

Katherine's practice covers all areas of personal injury law, including accidents at work, road traffic accidents, highway claims, accidents abroad and fatal accident claims.

Qualifications & Awards

Pupil supervisor

Fox Scholar of the Middle Temple (1998)

Queen's Mother Scholar of the Middle Temple (1997)

LLM (with merit), LSE, 1997

LLB (Hons) University of Durham (2:1), 1993

Appointments & Memberships

Health Professions Appeal and Review Board,

Member – Toronto, Canada (2015 – present)

Publications
