AREAS OF EXPERTISE

Aviation, Industrial Disease, Information Law, Personal Injury, International & Travel, Human Rights, Product Liability, Commercial

Max is recognised as a leading practitioner in a number of different fields including aviation law, cross border litigation, industrial disease, product liability and group actions. Across these fields he is experienced in tortious disputes, commercial litigation and regulatory matters.

He is known for his excellent client care, robust advocacy and pragmatic approach to litigation. Max's work is often technical, high value and complex. He often appears unled against silks in the higher courts and is acknowledged for his advocacy skills.

Max has unparalleled knowledge of aviation law and has become a go-to junior in this area in respect of large loss events occurring all over the world as well as domestic accidents, regulatory issues and commercial aviation work.

His work often has an international dimension, he has expertise in jurisdiction and conflicts of laws as well as private international tort law and human rights issues.

Max often acts in group actions, both led and unled. He is adept at handling mass tort cases and often acts in environmental actions as well as group personal injury claims.

He is a contributing author of Asbestos: Law & Litigation (Sweet & Maxwell, 2019) and the co-editor of 12KBW's Asbestos Blog.

Max is recognised in Aviation, Personal Injury and Travel in the Legal 500 and in Aviation, Personal Injury and Industrial Disease in Chambers & Partners.

Personal Injury

Max is recognised as a leading junior in personal injury litigation. He acts for claimants and defendants in high value and complex personal injury cases. He is regularly instructed in catastrophic injury cases for both claimants and defendants. He is known for his pragmatic, logical, advice and ability to cut to the core issues. He has personal injury experience beyond his call, acting unled in the high court against silks and senior juniors.

Max is adept at devising creative solutions to issues arising in personal injury litigation and often acts in cases involving novel points. He is acting in a number of group actions in this area and is used to working collaboratively with a team of lawyers.

Max's recent personal injury work includes a catastrophic claim arising out of an accident on the DLR, recovery actions brought by major insurers, claims brought under the animals act, brain and spinal injury cases and stress at work claims.
