AREAS OF EXPERTISE

Personal Injury, Industrial Disease, Group Litigation, Costs & Litigation Funding, International & Travel, Inquests, Insurance, Abuse

Rebecca has an active practice in Chambers' core areas of expertise and is developing specialisms in group actions, disease, international and travel law, and costs work.

In personal injury, Rebecca maintains an established court practice and acts for both Claimants and Defendants in CCMCs, applications and trials. As part of her multi-track practice, she has a particular interest in employers' liability claims.

In group litigation, Rebecca is instructed on multinational actions in product liability, toxic torts and aviation.

In disease, Rebecca is instructed in claims arising from exposure to asbestos as both sole and junior counsel. She is also experienced in work-related diseases and military claims.

Rebecca is instructed as a second junior to Steven Snowden KC and Dr Achas Burin on the Lampard Inquiry.

Prior to pupillage, Rebecca worked as a paralegal to a silk specialising in catastrophic injury, which has given her a sound understanding of high-value and complex personal injury work.

She taught contract administration and law at University College London. Rebecca studied History at Newnham College, Cambridge, where she graduated with a first-class degree.

Inquests and Inquiries

Rebecca acts for families at Inquests, including those arising from industrial disease.

Rebecca is instructed as a second junior on the Lampard Inquiry.

She has experience preparing for prison and healthcare inquests as a paralegal in a public law firm. She is able to work quickly and accurately with large amounts of disclosure. She has experience of working in the health, adult social care, and prison systems.
