

Rebecca Henshaw-Keene

Call: 2021
henshaw@12kbw.co.uk

AREAS OF EXPERTISE

Personal Injury, Industrial Disease, Costs & Litigation
Funding, Fraud, Credit Hire, Inquests, Insurance, Abuse

Rebecca accepts instructions in all areas of personal injury. She appears in court several times a week in hearings and applications and is frequently instructed on paperwork matters.

Prior to pupillage, Rebecca worked as a paralegal to a silk specialising in catastrophic injury. Before coming to the Bar, Rebecca worked in the NHS and local authorities on service planning and management, experience she brings to her practice. She taught contract administration and law at University College London.

Rebecca is assisting Steven Snowden KC and Dr Achas Burin as a second junior on the Lampard Inquiry, the independent statutory inquiry investigating the deaths of mental health inpatients in Essex.

Rebecca studied History at Newnham College, Cambridge, where she graduated with a first-class degree.

Qualifications & Awards

BPTC, City Law School (2021)
GDL, BPP (2019)
MPhil, Economic and Social History, University of Cambridge (2014)
BA (First-Class Honours), History, University of Cambridge (2013)

Lord Denning Scholar, Lincoln's Inn

© 2021 12 King's Bench Walk

Rebecca Henshaw-Keene

12 King's Bench Walk, London EC4Y 7EL

020 7583 0811 E: chambers@12kbw.co.uk DX: 1037 Chancery Lane

Rebecca Henshaw-Keene

12 King's Bench Walk, London EC4Y 7EL