AREAS OF EXPERTISE

International & Travel, Personal Injury, Aviation, Sport, Fraud, Industrial Disease, Clinical Negligence, Data Protection and Information Law

Spencer specialises in sports disputes, personal injury, clinical negligence, international and travel law, industrial disease, information law, and group litigation. He is regularly instructed in complex and high-profile matters for claimants and defendants, both as led and as sole counsel across all of his core practice areas and before a range of different courts and tribunals. He is a sought-after junior barrister who is often praised for his diligence, excellent client care, strong advocacy and ability to work well in teams.

The legal directories recognise Spencer's expertise across a broad range of practice areas where he is ranked as a 'rising star' or 'up and coming' in personal injury, industrial disease, insurance fraud, international personal injury, clinical negligence and sports law. They variously describe him as "great" with "impressive advocacy", "already having developed a practice that exceeds his seniority", "absolutely superb", and "thorough, professional and well-liked by clients".

Spencer's sports disputes practice sees him regularly instructed on behalf of sports governing bodies, players/athletes, clubs, coaches and agents across the full range of sports matters. His personal injury, clinical negligence, industrial disease and travel work involves cases of the utmost severity, and he has experience of large-scale litigation, being led, and acting as sole counsel.

Aviation

Spencer is recognised as a leading junior in both the Legal 500 and Chambers & Partners directories for his travel law experience which includes experience in aviation matters. He is described variously as "very good with clients, very calm and approachable" (Legal 500, 2026) and as "a very bright junior and a good advocate" (Chambers & Partners, 2025).

He has acted in numerous carriage by air disputes, including those involving EU regulations, Warsaw and Montreal Conventions and associated passenger, cargo, baggage, delay and denied boarding claims and military aviation claims. He is comfortable and has experience in handling high value catastrophic injury claims as well as those involving fatalities either as a junior or part of a wider team.

Spencer is equally comfortable acting in inquests in aviation matters, as well as in regulatory or commercial matters for claimants and defendants.

He is regularly invited to speak on cross-border legal issues at conferences, such as those organised by the Pan-European Organisation of Personal Injury Lawyers. He is a contributor Butterworths Personal Injury Litigation Service

(Accidents Abroad).
