12
King's Bench Walk

Stuart Jamieson

Call: 2003
chambers@12kbw.co.uk

AREAS OF EXPERTISE

Clinical Negligence, Personal Injury, Mediation

Stuart is a specialist in high-value, complex clinical negligence and personal injury disputes. He is instructed by leading personal injury and clinical negligence solicitors with a national reputation, undertaking both Claimant and Defendant work.

He is also a tenant at Parklane Plowden Chambers where he is Head of the Civil Team.

Stuart sits as a Recorder and a Deputy District Judge on the North Eastern Circuit.

He is the elected Personal Injury Bar Association representative for Circuit and sits on the Executive Committee at national level.

"Stuart is unbelievably talented in what he does, his expertise and in-depth knowledge of complex legal matters is often of great assistance, and comfort, to instructing solicitors." Chambers and Partners (2026) - Clinical Negligence (Band 2)

"Stuart turns papers around promptly, always with attention to detail and is excellent on his feet, in conferences and at joint settlement meetings." "Stuart is very bright and has good attention to detail." Chambers and Partners (2026) - Personal Injury (Band 2)

"Stuart's analytical skills are excellent and he hones into the key issues immediately. He is brilliant with clients and immediately puts them at their ease with his approachable manner." - The Legal 500 (2026) - Personal Injury (Tier 3)

Clinical Negligence

Stuart is a specialist in high-value and complex medical negligence disputes.

Chambers and Partners, 2026:

“Stuart Jamieson is very knowledgeable, he comes back quickly with advice, knows what he is doing, and tries to maximise the best outcome for the clients.”

“He is very good on fatal claims, presenting best possible dependency claims. He is my go-to and puts clients who are experiencing grief at ease.”

“Stuart quickly builds a rapport with clients. He takes the time to get to know them and remembers details that demonstrates to the client that their narrative has been heard.”

“Stuart is unbelievably talented in what he does, his expertise and in-depth knowledge of complex legal matters is often of great assistance, and comfort, to instructing solicitors.”

His current caseload includes:

- Obstetric
- Spinal surgery
- Cancers – delayed diagnosis of cervical, laryngeal, lung, testicular, bladder and breast cancers – misdiagnosis of neck cancer – extravasation injury during chemotherapy treatment – fatalities.
- Ophthalmic
- Hypoxic brain injury from alleged negligent surgery
- Intracranial hypertension, development of cerebral venous thrombosis and subarachnoid haemorrhage – profound injuries and complete blindness
- Sepsis – delayed diagnosis
- Liver disease – development of liver fibrosis and acute liver failure
- Negligent treatments resulting in death
- Delay in treatment of basilar thrombus resulting in tetraplegia
- Psychiatric – self-harm and suicide.

Personal Injury

Stuart is a specialist in high-value and complex personal injury disputes, accidents at work, road traffic accident claims and claims brought under the Animals Act 1971.

Chambers and Partners, 2026:

"He is popular with firms and clients; he works very hard."

"Stuart turns papers around promptly, always with attention to detail and is excellent on his feet, in conferences and at joint settlement meetings."

"Stuart is very bright and has good attention to detail."

Legal 500, 2026:

"Stuart's analytical skills are excellent and he hones into the key issues immediately. He is brilliant with clients and immediately puts them at their ease with his approachable manner."

His current caseload includes:

- Fatal Accident claims
- Multi-million-pound claim involving accidents at work and road traffic accidents
- Claims involving lower limb amputation or serious brain injury

Serious Injury

Stuart acts in personal injury and clinical negligence disputes of high-value and complexity.

His recent cases include:

AM (a protected party). Claimant suffering serious brain damage from fall at height resulting in profound disability. Acting for 2nd Defendant throughout contested liability and quantum proceedings. Claimant's Schedule of Loss pleaded at over £16M gross.

JM (a protected party). Motorist with accident from mud on highway resulting in serious brain damage. Acting for Claimant. Settled at JSM for net amount of £2.5M.

AN (deceased). Claim brought in clinical negligence and under Human Rights Act 1998. Acting for Claimant suffering profound psychiatric injury after witnessing wife's life support machine being turned off, without hospital following correct procedure. 6 figure settlement reached at mediation and apology obtained from Hospital Trust, since altering procedures in light of the case brought.

DC (deceased). High-value fatal accident, clinical negligence claim. Claimant dying following emergency liver transplant surgery and with acute liver failure, resulting in multiple organ failure, following negligent prescription of Methotrexate and Leflunomide, without adequate monitoring and supervision. Settled at mediation

RH (deceased). High Court trial on behalf of deceased that died as a result of a delay in the diagnosis of cervical cancer.

AJ. Claimant suffering delay in diagnosis of Charcot's foot at her right foot that has caused ongoing effects. Consideration in addition of subsequent fracture dislocation of the left ankle that involved attempted fusion surgery and amputation of the left fourth toe. The effects of the negligence including permanent deformity at the right foot and mid-foot collapse and persistent problems in respect of mobility, amenity and upon future employment.

Mediation

Stuart is a trained mediator having been trained at the London School of Mediation.

Directories

Chambers and Partners (2026) – Clinical Negligence (Band 2) – "Stuart Jamieson is very knowledgeable, he comes back quickly with advice, knows what he is doing, and tries to maximise the best outcome for the clients." "He is very good on fatal claims, presenting best possible dependency claims. He is my go-to and puts clients who are experiencing grief at ease." "Stuart quickly builds a rapport with clients. He takes the time to get to know them and remembers details that demonstrate to the client that their narrative has been heard." "Stuart is unbelievably talented in what he does, his expertise and in-depth knowledge of complex legal matters is often of great assistance, and comfort, to instructing solicitors."

Chambers and Partners (2026) – Personal Injury (Band 2) – "He is popular with firms and clients; he works very hard." "Stuart turns papers around promptly, always with attention to detail and is excellent on his feet, in conferences and at joint settlement meetings." "Stuart is very bright and has good attention to detail."

The Legal 500 (2026) – Clinical Negligence (Tier 2)

The Legal 500 (2026) – Personal Injury (Tier 3) – "Stuart's analytical skills are excellent and he hones into the key issues immediately. He is brilliant with clients and immediately puts them at their ease with his approachable manner."

Chambers and Partners (2025) – Personal Injury (Band 2) – "Stuart is very good with clients and gets to the root of the issue quickly. His advocacy skills are very good."

The Legal 500 (2025) – Clinical Negligence (Tier 2)

The Legal 500 (2025) – Personal Injury (Tier 3) – "A top-notch advocate, and a force to be reckoned with."

Chambers and Partners (2024) – Personal Injury (Band 2) – "Stuart is thorough and presents excellent argument both in writing and verbally. He approaches matters pragmatically and economically."

"Stuart has a very strong forensic and analytical approach which leaves me with great confidence in his advice and which makes him an excellent advocate. Alongside that, he is able to put clients at ease with his articulate yet approachable manner."

"His advocacy ability and negotiation skill in settlement meetings is excellent."

The Legal 500 (2024) – Clinical Negligence (Tier 2) – "A junior who quickly builds a rapport with clients due to his professional yet caring and compassionate approach."

The Legal 500 (2024) – Personal Injury (Tier 3) – "Stuart is a very capable, professional and approachable barrister. He doesn't shy away from difficult cases, and manages challenging clients very well."

Chambers and Partners (2023) – Personal Injury (Band 2) – "Stuart Jamieson is a junior barrister who continues to represent both claimants and defendants in complex personal injury cases. He regularly acts for clients with life-altering injuries arising from accidents at work as well as serious traffic accidents. He is noted for his exceptional ability when it comes to costs issues and claims under the Animals Act."

The Legal 500 (2023) – Personal Injury (Tier 3) – "A reliable and deeply intelligent junior."

The Legal 500 (2023) – Clinical Negligence (Tier 2) – "Stuart is a diligent and personable advocate. Clients really warm to him."

The Legal 500 (2022) – "A steadfast advocate who is very good on his feet. Very responsive, and great with clients."

Chambers & Partners (2022) – "Very responsive, really knowledgeable and pragmatic."

Chambers and Partners (2021) Personal Injury – "He is practical, great with clients and has great communication skills."

The Legal 500 (2021) – Clinical Negligence (Tier 2) – "'He pays high attention to detail and works through issues in a very logical and clear manner. He is able to identify the key issues quickly and identify a clear direction the case needs to take."

The Legal 500 (2021) – Personal Injury (Tier 3) – "He always provides top quality, down-to-earth advice in the field of PI and medical negligence."

Chambers and Partners (2020) Personal Injury – "Junior who continues to represent both claimants and defendants in complex personal injury cases. He regularly acts for clients with life-altering injuries arising from accidents at work as well as serious traffic accidents. He is noted for his exceptional ability when it comes to costs issues and claims under the Animals Act. He is also adept at handling complex industrial disease claims involving hand-arm vibration syndrome and noise-induced hearing loss."

The Legal 500 (2020) – Personal Injury (Tier 3) – "Performs impressively in joint settlement meetings."

The Legal 500 (2020) – Clinical Negligence (Tier 2) – "Extremely tenacious when dealing with opponents."

Chambers and Partners (2019) – (Band 2) – "His level of service, willingness to help and general competence is above reproach – he is excellent all round. He is always approachable, and takes a very hands-on attitude to cases in which he is instructed. He is excellent both on paper and on his feet as an advocate."

"He always provides clear and concise advice, is excellent with clients and responds quickly to instructions."

Chambers and Partners (2018) – (Band 2) – "Junior whose flourishing practice sees him representing both claimants and defendants in complex personal injury cases. He regularly acts for clients with life-altering injuries arising from accidents at work as well as serious traffic accidents. He is noted for his exceptional ability when it comes to costs issues."

Chambers and Partners (2017) – "Junior whose flourishing practice sees him representing both claimants and defendants in complex personal injury cases. He regularly acts for clients with life-altering injuries arising from accidents at work as well as serious traffic accidents. He is also noted for his work recovering costs."

Chambers and Partners (2016) – "Works on a range of complex multi-track personal injury matters. Recent cases have concerned EL/PL matters and brain injuries."

Notable Cases

Recently Concluded Cases

- (a protected party) v Strainge- approved settlement of £2,500,000 in a claim by a profoundly injured motorist who had suffered brain damage and with liability in dispute.
- DC on behalf of RH, deceased – High-value clinical negligence claim heard at trial in the High Court and involving death following delay in the diagnosis of cervical cancer
- GXM on behalf of JXM, a protected party-Approval of settlement before HHJ Mark Gargan, Clinical negligence claim involving failure to treat sepsis and acquired brain injury with profound disabling effects
- AM -Acting for Defendant in multi-million-pound claim involving serious brain injury after a fall from height in an accident at work.
- PN on behalf of AN (Deceased) – Acting for widower following the removal of life support for his wife, involving significant fatal accident, clinical negligence and human rights claims. Settlement reached at round table mediation.
- High-value settlement reached when acting for victim of childhood sexual abuse
- TB (deceased) – Claim on behalf of statutory dependents, the deceased's children, following the delay in diagnosis of pancreatic cancer
- Multi-million-pound claim brought by severely brain damaged Claimant following injury as a pedestrian in road traffic accident where liability in dispute

Lectures

Recent Lectures

- West & Demouilpied, Proportionality and Costs
- Jallow v MOD, lessons in Costs Budgeting
- Jackson Reforms: What's Over the Horizon
- Psychiatric Injury, A Clinical Overview
- Care Claims: Past Care, Future Care & Putting the Regime in Place
- Interviewed by Garrison FM for their Personal Injury law Radio slot
- Costs & Part 36
- Animals Act claims
- Loss of Earnings for the Self-Employed
- Podcasts on Mental Capacity and Clinical Negligence topics