

14.00 – 14.45	Hidden jewels of the CPR crown Ben Leech and Kate Boakes A tour of some of the lesser used by-ways of the CPR, taking in some well-known but now somewhat neglected sights along the way. This talk aims to add some new and old tricks to the procedural arsenal at any litigator's disposal.	Claims against the police post Robinson and Worboys; duties and human rights John-Paul Swoboda John-Paul will consider the Supreme Court decisions in Robinson and Worboys which have profound consequences for all claims brought in negligence or under the Human Rights Act and fundamentally re-position the law in relation to claims against the police.
14:50 – 15:35	An introduction to Periodical Payments Hugh Hamill This is an introduction to Periodical Payments for those who have heard of them, but never had to consider whether they were suitable for their case. Hugh will look at the rules which govern PPs and consider the pros and cons of offering them.	Getting the most out of the costs and case management process Anna Symington Anna will look at the recent decisions relevant to budgeting and will try to provide some practical guidance for both Claimants and Defendants on how to derive the most from the process.
15:35 – 16:00	Tea and coffee break
16:00 – 16:45	Motor Insurance update Nigel Lewers An update on developments in the law of motor insurance	Dicing with procedural death: a limitation update Mary Newnham and Nina Ross A practical update on the key recent developments in limitation and related defences. Topics covered include date of knowledge, section 33, contribution proceedings, foreign proceedings and service.
16:50 – 17:35	Fundamental Dishonesty – QOCS &amp; S 57 Charlotte Reynolds A look at the background, statutory framework, and recent authorities concerning Fundamental Dishonesty in the context of both s.57 and QOCS.	Civil Liability Bill – what's happening and when Sarah Beslee and Rachit Buch Sarah and Rachit will look at the key reforms introduced by the Bill on the discount rate and whiplash claims. They will focus on the practical impact of the reforms, when the new rate will be set, and the impact of the Bill on tactics for settlement.

Please join us for drinks, nibbles, and networking after the seminar.

THIS TRAINING IS ACCREDITED WITH 3 APIL CPD HOURS.